

6.1 Progress Review 3 Overview – Student & Parent/Carer Guidance

PROGRESS REVIEW 3 OVERVIEW

- Students and parents/carers will be able to access the Progress Review 3 report via an email sent on 24th June.
- All A-level courses and BTEC subjects not completing an external qualification in Summer 2022, will publish a Current Grade, UCAS Grade and Effort Grade. BTEC subjects that do not complete an external qualification in Summer 2022 are: Business, Art and Design, Performing Arts Practice, Sports Coaching and Development, and Film & TV.
- At 6.1 PR3, A level courses will report the Progression Exam grade achieved in each subject.
- At 6.1 PR3, 6.1 BTEC subjects not completing an external qualification in Summer 2022 will base their current grade upon the most relevant and recent assessment(s) completed on the course so far together with the professional opinion of the subject teacher(s).
- For BTEC and GCSE subjects completing an external qualification in in Summer 2022 we are unable to publish a Current Grade or UCAS grade at Progress Review 3 due to the certification process, so just an Effort Grade will be published. Affected BTEC subjects are Health and Social Care, Information Technology, Science, Creative Media, and Music Technology.
- Within the report a Minimum Grade shows what students with similar GCSE results have achieved as their final grades, on average, in previous years. It is important to note that this is just an average and in many cases with hard work students achieved grades higher than their Minimum Grades.

PROGRESS REVIEW 3 SUBJECT REVIEWS

1. Overall aims

- The intent of the Progress Review 3 Subject Review is for every student to have an appointment with each subject area to discuss their current progress and any summer independent study that they will undertake to aid their transition to the 6.2 year.

2. Organisation

- Progress Review 3 subject reviews are run by the subject teachers and take place during the 2 days of timetable suspension – the 13th and 14th July.

Day / Date	Morning / Afternoon	Time
Wednesday 13 th July	Morning	08.50 – 12.50
	Afternoon	13.50 – 16.20
Thursday 14 th July.	Morning	08.50 – 12.50
	Afternoon	13.50 – 16.20

- All Progress Review subject reviews are a maximum of 10 minutes long and will be hosted via Microsoft Teams Chat or be in college at student request.
- If students do not engage with their appointment, then the subject teacher will make a note on the Progress Review Log to that effect and complete the entry in the student’s absence.

3. Progress Review Self Reviews and Subject Reviews

All tutors will via PDP clarify with their students the Progress Review 3 process. Prior to meeting with their teachers, students will be expected to complete a Self-Review per course. This can be completed by:

1. Entering their profile on their database.
2. Clicking on 'Progress', followed by 'Progress Review'
3. Under Progress Review Log clicking 'add new'
4. Selecting under the options 'Self-Review' and the course.
5. Answering the following questions for each of their courses:
  - STOP - What are you going to stop doing that is not working?
  - START - What should you put in place to improve your final outcomes?
  - CONTINUE - What is working well for you and should be continued?

4. Start of 6.2 Day

- Start of 6.2 Day will be on Monday 5th September – more information will follow towards the end of the Summer Term in relation to all associated activity.
- The morning session of Start of 6.2 Day is for students who achieve a U grade in a subject (Progression Exam or External Qualification), are below 540 guided learning hours or did not select a Progression Pathway. These students will be required to come in to see the appropriate Head of Department or Tutor Team Leader to ensure they have a suitable study programme in-place for the 6.2 year.
- In addition, subject teachers may make appointments for the afternoon with students to discuss progress with their summer independent study.
- Learning Resource Centres will communicate opening times in which students can come into college to undertake independent study.
- The first day of teaching for all 6.2 students for the 22/23 academic year is Monday 12th September.
